Rental Appraisal

The vacancy rate for well presented, located and priced units is at very low levels at the moment which is great news for investors!

It is estimated the property could rent for around $620-$660 per week unfurnished approx. in the current buoyant market. The unique setting and spaciousness in a cosmopolitan and central position will be particularly attractive to prospective tenants.

This amazing property is a rental "no-brainer" in a highly sought after location.
